

Negro and White Students Together at Hoxie, Ark.--

First Day of Integration

TAKING TURNS—White and negro children took turns on the swings and slides on the playground during recess at Hoxie School. Older children sat in the shade, while white and negro children together, talking in friendly fashion.

NEW FRIENDS—Bill Ruffin, 13, left center, eating ice cream cone after lunch, had plenty to tell his white friends. He lives on a farm, has been driving a tractor two years. He has 15 brothers and sisters.
